WHAT DOES ACRES BANK DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?

The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Social Security number and income
- Account balances and account transactions
- Payment history and credit history

When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.

How?

Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

Acres Bank is a division of Heritage Bank N.A.

What we do

How does Acres Bank protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

We also limit access to information to those employees for whom access is appropriate.

How does Acres Bank collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- Open an account or apply for a loan
- Make deposits or withdrawals or provide account information
- Provide employment information

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- Sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- Affiliates from using your information to market to you
- Sharing for non-affiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
